CTMI Intellectual Property Protection

G.O.L.

Welcome - The CTMI Global Intellectual Property Center is part of CTMI's & WCN's decades-long IP and global trade protection and applications development. It includes collaboration, commercialization, and business incubation tools and assistance...

- ~ University-to-university research project collaboration
- ~ University RD commercialization assistance
- ~ University-to-business joint-venture, investor & incubation tools
- ~ Business-to-business joint venture, investor & incubation tools
- ~ RFP / Request For Proposal tools for academia to authenticate IP
- ~ Industry-specific clusters (Health / BioTech, GreenTech, IT & more...)

"...The focus on Intellectual Property and its role in collaborative research projects, as well as commercialization of research with your group's tools is timely and well-placed...the auto-notarizing and IP authentication services... appear useful in the process of building, sharing and commercializing intellectual property that results from Research and Development activity..."

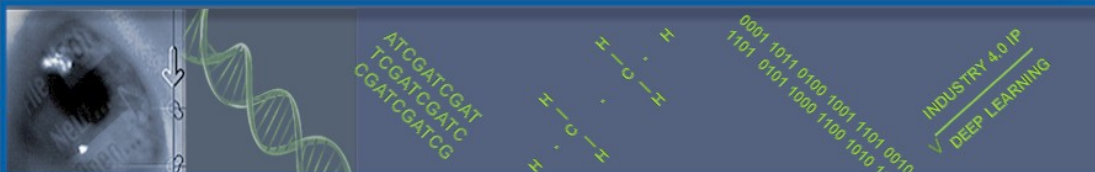

Associate Director, UBC - ULIO

"...With our expanding green energy Intellectual Property portfolio, the CTMI-eVault in the IP Center is a great trusted tool-set to protect and securely share information with potential joint-venture partners, customers and suppliers..."

President, Technologic Development Corp.

"...we are a fast-growing business in the food industry and got our ChamberTrust seal some years back. In a marketplace with dramatic changes due to new technologies and communication tools, we also appreciate the other modules, such as the chamber / CTMI-eVault service...it is great for high-security / anywhere access of invoices and trade documentation with digital receipts while our drivers are on the road..."

Managing Partner, Berrymobile Fruit Distribution Inc.
